Chancho's Suenos- For my special horse. Be assured his dreams are filled with carrots, sweetgrass and molasses. Smooth and mellow just like Chancho.

Topper-Escobar-of-Soap- Named for our rescued fiery Arab. Oats, buttermilk and honey. Soothing and mild, something Topper needs to work on!

Lil' Becky- Ginger and Sweet Orange Blossom- This little hen wasn't with us very long, but, changed our lives in more ways than one.

For the Love of Libbey- A White Arabian Mare and a spunky blonde texas cowgirl started the mission of rescue at T.I.E.R. Libbey crossed the rainbow bridge in 2003, may the clean scents of a cool spring and dewey green cactus remind us of this gentle and noble horse.

Greener Pastures- A heartfelt tribute to all equines that have fallen under mans service of suffered great tragedy. A hopeful blend of fresh green grass with a breath of lemon.

Doc's Hand Tooled Leather- For my friend Debbie's dream Horse. Doc is true quarter horse with style. Nothing reminds us more of Doc than the familiar scent of leather.

Wild Horse Berries- Blueberry, Blackberry, Vanilla and a hint of Peppermint. Returning for its 6th year!

Sachmo's 5 Lives- This little barn kitty has beat the odds many times and comes out purring. Lavender and Rosemary.

Giddy Up Gal- For all the real cowgirls out there a little sweet, dusty and full of fun. Violet, sunflower and warm ginger.

T.I.E.R. Drops- 100% profits benefit this wonderful equine rescue. Peppermint and a touch of eucalyptus.

Good Morning, I'm a Cowboy!- Named by our good friends Dave and Suzanne, this one smells how every cowboy should. Cedar, sage and a hint of coffee.

Dinky's Dawn- whether she is grazing in the pasture of peeking out of the barn, Dinky's copper coat sparkles like the morning sun. New Mown hay and Red apples.
